Organizing Your Financial Life

Hello Dennis,

I don't know about you but cabin fever is really starting to set in. Given all the snow we've had lately and the impacts of the pandemic on daily activity, we have all spent more time inside lately than we probably want to. This month we focus on using some of the time we have at home while we await the renewal of spring to arrive. This is a great time to get your financial life organized. Tax time is just around the corner and having your documents and records organized will help make life a little easier. It's also important to know what records you need to keep and how long you should keep them. Use some of your free time to get organized so when you need to find a financial record you can spend more of
