

December Newsletter

Hello Dennis,

The past 15 years of US Equity dominance has many people wondering if there's a point to diversification. Read our take on the matter, and see why diversification may be most important when it's least popular. Further reading includes a look at November inflation, things to know about long-term care, the difficulty of predicting a stock market crash, and a few financial book recommendations for the holiday season.

Thank you,
HFS Wealth Advisors Team
